

PRESS RELEASE

Another Milestone for Steuben Trust Company New Branch in Clarence Set To Open.

HORNELL, NY August 20, 2018 - Since 1902 Steuben Trust Company has been serving the communities in the Southern Tier and Western, NY and on August 27th Steuben Trust will officially open their first full service branch in Erie County, located at 8503 Main Street, in the Town of Clarence, on the corner of Harris Hill and Main Street.

President, John S. Eagleton states, "Steuben Trust has a strong heritage and we are honored to be able to continue that legacy by serving the residents of Erie County. We have brought in experienced bankers who understand the needs of the community and can help consumers and business owners with their financial needs. We are truly proud to be a part of this growing community and we look forward to being an active member, with a bright future!"

Branch manager, Tony Lanza and his staff will have the doors open at 9am for the public. "We are excited to have the branch open. Our team has been working very hard in preparation for this day and the building looks great!" "I think the Buffalo market will find we have very competitive products, excellent customer service and because we are a true community bank the experience will be warm and inviting."

The building's renovations were inspired by an industrial design motif and updated with modern security and technology. The full service branch will offer a complete array of products and services, as well as a 24/7 ATM machine, night drop box and drive-up window. Initial hours of operation will be 9am-4pm Monday thru Wednesday, 9am-6pm Thursday and 9am-5pm Friday.

Bank officials anticipate an official grand opening and ribbon cutting ceremony at a future date.

Steuben Trust Corp. is the parent company of Steuben Trust Company chartered by NYS in 1902 and member FDIC.
