

PRESS RELEASE

Heather Aldrich Joins Steuben Trust Company As The New Branch Manager of the Warsaw Office

HORNELL, February 9, 2018 - Brenda L. Copeland, CEO of Steuben Trust Company is pleased to announce that Heather Aldrich of Warsaw, NY has accepted the position of Vice President & Branch Manager of the Warsaw Branch.

Heather has over 20 years of experience in banking and most recently was branch manager for two offices of another community bank in Warsaw. She has her life & health Insurance licenses and has experience with wealth management services.

Heather resides in the Village of Warsaw with her husband Jordan and two busy dogs. She serves as a member of the Warsaw town/village planning board and is also the Salvation Army Warsaw Representative.

Mrs. Copeland stated, "Heather is coming to us with a great deal of experience in banking and we are excited to have her dedication to customer relationships and community, a key part of our continued successful growth of our Warsaw branch"

Jim Knapp, Senior Vice President & Retail Sales Manager, Said, "Heather is a wonderful addition to our team! She has been a great asset for the Warsaw area and we know that she will continue that positive community engagement for us."

Steuben Trust Corp. is the parent company of Steuben Trust Company chartered by NYS in 1902 and member of FDIC. The Bank currently operates fourteen full services locations in Steuben, Allegany, Livingston, Monroe and Wyoming counties, as well as a representative office in Erie County. To view all of the products and services Steuben Trust Company offers visit <http://www.SteubenTrust.com>.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Steve Harriger - Marketing Director

Steve.Harriger@SteubenTrust.com

607.324.9590