

PRESS RELEASE

Steuben Trust Company welcomes Michael Cleary as the newest Vice President & Commercial Loan Officer

HORNELL, May 31, 2017 - Brenda L. Copeland, CEO of Steuben Trust Company is pleased to announce that Michael Cleary of Elma, NY has accepted a position as Vice President & Commercial Loan Officer. Mr. Cleary will be working from the Steuben Trust Company Representative Office located at 2701 Transit Road, Suite 141 Elma, NY 14059.

After completing his Juris Doctorate at John Marshall Law School and working as a Law Associate/Partner with his family's law firm, Mike has focused his career on banking and building commercial relationships over the past 18 years. His career with commercial lending in Buffalo began with Citibank (which became M&T), and includes KeyBank, Bank of America, and most recently First Niagara (now acquired by KeyBank). Mike is active with the Elma Planning Board, East Aurora Chamber of Commerce and is President of EMW Lacrosse.

Mrs. Copeland stated, "We are very pleased to have Michael join our team at Steuben Trust and look forward to our continued growth in the Buffalo area with his significant experience."

Steuben Trust Corp. is the parent company of Steuben Trust Company chartered by NYS in 1902 and member FDIC. The Bank currently operates fourteen offices in Steuben, Allegany, Livingston, Monroe and Wyoming counties, as well as a representative office in Erie County. To view all of the products and services Steuben Trust Company offers visit <http://www.SteubenTrust.com>.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Steve Harriger - Marketing Director

Steve.Harriger@SteubenTrust.com

607.324.9590