

PRESS RELEASE

John Eagleton announced as the new President of Steuben Trust Company

HORNELL, June 1, 2017 - David A. Shults Chairman of the Board of Steuben Trust Corporation and Company is pleased to announce that the Board of Directors has chosen John Eagleton for the position of President of Steuben Trust Company effective June 19, 2017.

Mr. Eagleton is a seasoned commercial lender from the Buffalo area and most recently, served as Executive Vice President of Lending, Retail Branches and Wealth Services for Evans Bank. John has a BS in marketing/management, an MBA in finance, and is a graduate of the Stonier School of Banking. He and his wife currently reside in Orchard Park.

Brenda L. Copeland will remain at the bank for a period of time as Chief Executive Officer, to ensure a seamless transition of leadership, and then as a board member and Vice Chair. Mrs. Copeland stated, "We welcome John to Steuben Trust and look forward to continued growth and success."

Steuben Trust Corp. is the parent company of Steuben Trust Company chartered by NYS in 1902. The Bank currently operates fourteen offices in Steuben, Allegany, Livingston, Monroe and Wyoming counties, as well as a representative office in Erie County. To view all of the products and services Steuben Trust Company offers visit <http://www.SteubenTrust.com>.

MEDIA CONTACT:

Steve Harriger - Marketing Director

Steve.Harriger@SteubenTrust.com

607.324.9590